1. Drawings:

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the method steps, for example:

defining a plurality of subareas...;

using first commands for accessing a first subarea... and second commands for accessing a second subarea...to form,..., a compressed command sequence,...; and writing and/or reading the information by executing in all of the memory banks..., must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action .

2. Abstract:

The abstract is objected to because it repeats information given in the title, for example, "A method for testing a semiconductor memory having a plurality of memory banks".

3. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

4. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As per claim 1, lines 1-4, "A method for testing a semiconductor memory..., which comprises the steps of:" the preamble of the claim is a method for testing a semiconductor memory, but there isn't any testing step recited in the body of the claim; lines 2-4, "the testing involving information being written to memory addresses and/or being read from the memory addresses" it fails to show how to test the memory addresses; and lines 15-16, "...and being inserted between the first commands" is not clear as to what it means. Appropriate correction is required.

As per claims 2-9, these claims are also rejected because they dependent upon the rejected base claim.
